

Mission Opportunities and Career Planning

Are you looking for...

- the right COUNTRY
- the right PEOPLE GROUP
- and the right MINISTRY

for you in God's service?

We have the resources to help you! Go to the centre of the Exhibition Hall.

A missions search station and personnel will be there to help you.

Make an appointment upon arrival for a personal career planning consultation.

Missions Opportunities for Short Term and Career Missions

may be found in the Program Guide and on our WEB Site under "Mission Opportunities"

Planning for a Career in Missions?

Prepare yourself for a life journey with destiny and fulfillment in your calling.

For a personal career planning consultation at Missions Fest, email your request to:

Missions Fest Career Planning Session at _____

Upon arriving at Missions Fest, go directly to "Missions Opportunities" and make an appointment.

Please complete this questionnaire and bring it along to your session.

1. Name
2. Contact Address
3. Give a short Self-description
4. My life passion is to
5. My most important work values
6. My interests
7. My work qualifications and or certifications
8. If you have done any recent self-directed mission career searches, what were you interested in?
9. Personal skills that match my calling
10. My transferable skills that I can use for a career in missions
11. Do I have current financial commitments, and if so, how will I deal with them?
12. Who will be my support network when I go to into missions?
13. How can or will my local church be involved in my ministry
14. Where do I want to see myself a year from now?
15. Where do I want to see myself working five years from now?
16. How do I feel about the significant others in my life with regards to my Calling to be involved in missions work?

A team of dedicated career planning practitioners some seasoned mission personnel will be available during the weekend.

